

RIOTS CONTINUE; ODESSA BURNING, MUTINEERS FIRE ON TROOPS

Hundreds Killed in Street Carnage as Sailors Join Strikers and Train Machine Guns on the Cossacks—Mutiny Spreads to Black Sea Fleet, While Sailors at Libau Rebel—Czar Rushes Warships to Put Down Rebellion.

(By Associated Press.)

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29—4.50 P. M.—Shortly after noon to-day an untimed despatch was received here reporting that complete anarchy reigned at Odessa.

The inhabitants were panic-stricken and were huddled together in the houses.

The streets were filled with frenzied workmen fighting the troops. The warehouses, quays, and some of the shipping in the harbor were in flames. The correspondent of the Associated Press who forwarded this despatch had to make his way to the telegraph office through dense smoke which covered the city like a pall.

He heard volleys every few minutes. In the darkness the mob was beginning the work of pillage and plunder, indicating that the despatch was filed last night, but was delayed by the authorities.

The correspondent added that bluejackets with machine guns had been landed from the battle-ship Kniaz Potemkine, in the hands of the mutineers, and they fought with the strikers behind barricades against the troops.

Hundreds were killed and the hospitals were crowded with wounded.

There were rumors, the correspondent also said, that some of the soldiers had joined the mutinous sailors in fighting against the troops, but he was unable to confirm this report.

The correspondent said nothing about the arrival at Odessa of the warships commanded by Vice Admiral Kruger, but a despatch from Sebastopol says the battle-ship Georgi Pobledonosetz (George the Victorious) and the cruiser Griden have started for Odessa.

MUTINEERS AT LIBAU FIRE ON OFFICERS.

LIBAU, Government of Courland, Russia, June 29.—The Russian sailors here mutinied last night, attacked the Government stores, seized the arms and fired into the officers' quarters.

Infantry, artillery and Cossacks were brought to the scene of the fighting, but the result is not known.

Intense excitement prevails here.

HUNDREDS KILLED IN ODESSA RIOTS.

ODESSA, June 29.—Hundreds of rioters were shot and killed by troops during the night.

Martial law has been proclaimed. The losses are estimated at many millions of rubles. The remnants of the wharves and warehouses set on fire last night are still burning to-day and the city is enveloped in a thick cloud of smoke.

PIERCE FIGHTING IN STREETS.

Several explosions occurred in the port during the night and fierce conflicts took place between troops and rioters. The dead are now reckoned in the hundreds. The hospitals are overflowing with wounded persons and the medical aid available is quite inadequate.

The shops are closed and business and traffic are suspended. The streets are occupied by troops. Many residents are leaving Odessa.

The body of Omiltchuk, the sailor executed on board the Russian battle-ship Kniaz Potemkine, is still exposed on the quay, where it was landed by the crew of the Kniaz Potemkine yesterday.

The dead man's comrades, who demand that the remains shall be accorded military honors, actively fought on the side of the rioters against the troops.

MUTINY SPREADS TO BLACK SEA FLEET.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29.—Rumors are rife in this city that the officers on board the ships belonging to the squadron of Vice-Admiral Kruger, which left Sebastopol for Odessa Tuesday, have shared the fate of the officers of the battleship Kniaz Potemkine, and have been murdered by the mutineers.

It is added that the mutineers are in possession of the other warships of the squadron.

If so, the mutiny has control of more than half the heavy ships of the Black Sea Fleet.

TROOPS WILL NOT FIRE ON PEOPLE.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29.—St. Petersburg, in view of the developments at Odessa, is filled with stories of disaffection and sedition among the troops; even the guard regiments, it is reported, say they will never again fire upon the people. The Cossacks alone, according to these tales, are absolutely reliable. That disaffection and discontent among the soldiers is widespread admits of little doubt, but the situation is hardly as black as painted. Up to the present there is no reason to believe that the vast bulk of the army is not loyal. What the effect would be of several regiments going over to the rioters is, however, problematical.

Certainly a crisis seems to have been reached.

The other battleships, aside from the Kniaz Potemkine, said to be in the hands of the mutineers are the Tchesme Sinope and the Triavittella (Three Apostles).

The Admiralty, however, does not confirm the report of the mutiny on board Admiral Kruger's other ships.

Admiral Wierelius, Chief of the Naval General Staff, at noon to-day informed the Associated Press that he did not know whether Kruger's squadron had arrived at Odessa.

CZAR IN HASTY CONFERENCE.

Admiral Avellan was summoned to Peterhof at 8 o'clock this morning to discuss the situation with the Emperor.

Such advice as the Emperor and the Government have received are carefully withheld.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29—6.50 P. M.—All the liquor shops are closed during the mobilization, which continues mostly at night. The men will be taken out of St. Petersburg within a few days.

The temper of the officers of the guard regiments is shown by the fact that since the meeting at Tsarskoe-Selo they have been demanding permission to hold another meeting.

They insist that they must henceforth be relieved from police duty.

CREW OF TRANSPORT JOINS THE MUTINEERS.

ODESSA, June 29.—The crew of a Government transport which arrived here to-day from Nikoloff mutinied, seized their officers and joined the crew of the battle-ship Kniaz Potemkine, to whom they turned over the captain and other officers of the transport.

It is reported that the foreign consuls have applied to their respective governments to send warships to Odessa.

NEW ARMY OF 15,000 TROOPS REACH LODZ.

LODZ, Russian Poland, June 29.—About fifteen thousand additional troops have arrived here and the city is again quiet. In response to a deputation of Jews the Chief of Police to-day promised to protect them and their co-religionists.

RIGA, Russia, June 29.—Strikers and peasants to-day ambushed a number of Cossacks in a neighboring wood. Killed one of them and wounded several.

REVAL, Russia, June 29.—Railroad employees here to the number of four hundred have struck work.

A squadron of Cossacks has been dispatched to Gapsal to suppress rioting. Details are lacking, as all telegraph and telephone communication with the place is severed.

LYNCHERS SHOOT SEVEN MEN DEAD IN GEORGIA TOWN

(Special to The Evening World.)

WATKINSVILLE, Ga., June 29.—Seven negroes and a white man were taken from the jail in this city to a vacant lot 100 yards distant by a mob last night, tied to posts and shot. Six of the negroes and the white man are dead. The remaining negro was slightly wounded and feigned death, deceiving the mob.

Three of the negroes and the white man were under arrest charged with complicity in the murder of H. S. Holbrook, a farmer, and his wife on May 9. The other negroes stood accused of an assault upon Mrs. Weldon Dooley, the wife of a farmer.

The members of the mob were masked and as yet there is absolutely no clue to their identity, although it is well known that they were citizens of Watkinsville and Oconee County. But one man outside those who were lynched saw the mob. He is Jack Crow, the jailer, and he swears that he did not recognize any of the masked lynchers. By the time the citizens, aroused by the shots, had reached the scene of the shooting the mob had departed and all that remained to mark the tragedy were the eight bodies on the grass and the jailer standing against a tree.

About fifty masked men rode into Watkinsville by different roads at 2 o'clock this morning. They moved with the precision of a military organization, noiselessly and rapidly. Placing their horses at convenient and evidently prearranged points, they descended on the jail in a body. The town was wrapped in slumber and none heard them until they appeared at the door of the jail.

His Keys or His Life.

Jailer Crow was in his office. He was told that unless he delivered the keys of the cells he would be killed without delay.

"We are after certain negroes," said the spokesman, "and we will get them, whether we have to kill you or not. If you want to sacrifice your life for them, refuse to hand over the keys."

Crow glanced at the members of the mob who had crowded into the office. Through the open door he could see others outside. Through every mark he saw the glint of a determined pair of eyes. In the hands of every man he saw a revolver, a rifle or a shotgun. He handed over the keys.

Some in the crowd knew the jail well. They guided the mob directly to the doors of the eight prisoners. Aycock, the white man, was taken out first. He was told that he was accused of hiring the two Robinsons and Elder to kill Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook that there were men present who knew that he was guilty and that he was about to die.

Aycock said nothing as the others taken were Randy Price, Bob Harris, Joe Patterson, Jim Yearly, Claude Elder and Edward Lewis Robinson.

The negroes were secured within three minutes. Aroused by the noise a few other prisoners in the jail peered through the doors of their cells.

There was a four and eight forms dropped from the posts as the echoes of the volley awakened the town. Without further ado the masked men entered, leaving Crow the jailer guard over the bodies.

Joe Patterson has escaped by almost a miracle. The post to which he was bound was riddled with bullets, but he reeled away to the quaked men scattered, leaving Crow the jailer guard over the bodies.

Without a word of command the eight men were quickly bound to posts. Without a word of command the eight men were quickly bound to posts.

CZAR ORDERS 200,000 DRAFTED FOR ARMY.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The State Department has a cablegram from Mr. Meyer, the American Ambassador to St. Petersburg, saying that extensive mobilization has been ordered in the districts of Kiev, St. Petersburg, Warsaw and Moscow because of the necessity of immediately increasing the forces in the Far East.

It is expected that under these orders between 100,000 and 200,000 men will be called into service.

DEPEW'S SALARY CUT BY EQUITABLE

Mr. Paul Morton announced this afternoon an expense reduction that will save the Equitable $5,000 a year in the cutting off of the salaries of Chauncey M. Depew, David B. Hill and George H. Squire. The announcement was brief and to the point, as follows:

"Mr. George H. Squire has been notified that his pension or salary of $1,000 a month will cease on July 1.

"Hon. Chauncey M. Depew has been notified that his annual retainer of $30,000 will be discontinued on July 1.

"Hon. David B. Hill has been notified that his retainer of $5,000 per annum has been discontinued."

From the announcement of Mr. Morton it is apparent that he has been unable to satisfy himself as to whether Mr. Squire was getting a salary or a pension. The announcement clears up the nature of the services for which Senator Depew and ex-Senator Hill have been drawing upon the Equitable strong box.

TROUBLE FOLLOWS WIFE'S MEETING THEATRICAL AGENT

When Mrs. Hunt Told Husband Her Diamond Was Gone He Wanted to Leave Her, She Said.

Mrs. Emma S. Hunt, a prepossessing woman, living at No. 511 West One Hundred and Eleventh street, had her husband in the Harlem Court to-day on a summons alleging he had threatened to desert her. Her husband is Cyprion C. Hunt, at one time an actor, later a politician, and during the last campaign a stump speaker touring the country with Vice-President Fairbanks.

Hunt was the original character in "Becky's Bad Boy," but left the stage to become a member of the firm of Honeyman & Co., cloak manufacturers, at No. 10 West Eighteenth street. He said he belonged to seventeen clubs, mostly political.

Mrs. Hunt, the evidence showed, had been on the stage at one time, and had recently got the "fever" again.

Last Tuesday, the evidence showed, she visited several theatrical agents for a position. She also answered an advertisement of the old variety, met the H. C. Hunt, and in the heat of an office was taken to the Palm Room at the Hotel Hamilton. There she was shown, were identified in, and she gave the "manager" a $500 diamond ring for some fancied service in getting her a position. Later she discovered her loss and followed. Hunt said he had no intention of leaving home. The case was postponed.

BABY GIRL'S AWFUL HUMOR

Would Scab Over, Break Open, and Be Raw—Intense Suffering for Two Years—Doctors and Medicines Failed to Help Her.

CURED BY CUTICURA AT COST OF 75 CENTS

Written under date of Aug. 15, 1904, Mrs. L. C. Walker, of Tremont St., Woodford, Me., says: "My sister had a terrible humor on her shoulder when she was eighteen months old, causing intense suffering for two years. We had several doctors, and tried everything, but in spite of all we did it kept spreading. One day it would scab over and then crack open and a watery matter ooze from it and the scabs would all fall off. It would be raw for a time, then scab over again. Some one recommended Cuticura, and we immediately procured a box of Cuticura Ointment, and a cake of Cuticura Soap. She was much better after the first bath with warm water and soap, and an application of the Ointment. Before it was half gone we saw a marked change for the better, and she was entirely cured, without a scar being left, by the use of Cuticura and one cake of Soap. Her skin is now entirely clear, and she has not had a sign of trouble since."
